

Keynote Speaker

Dominic J. Caruso
Vice President, Finance and CFO
Johnson & Johnson

Dominic J. Caruso is Vice President, Finance and CFO of Johnson & Johnson, the world's most comprehensive and broadly based health care products company. Mr. Caruso serves as a member of the Company's Executive Committee and has responsibility for financial and investor relations activities, as well as the Company's procurement organization. He assumed his current position in January 2007.

Mr. Caruso joined the Corporation in October 1999 as CFO for Centocor, Inc., with the completion of the merger of Centocor and Johnson & Johnson. Prior to joining Johnson & Johnson, he had been with Centocor since 1985 with responsibilities for finance, information management, investor relations, procurement and facility services. He also served as general manager of Centocor's Diagnostic Division. Prior to joining Centocor, he had varied industry experiences with the audit and tax services firm KPMG.

In 2001, Mr. Caruso was named Vice President of Finance for Ortho-McNeil Pharmaceutical and a member of its management board. He was named Vice President, Group Finance for Medical Devices & Diagnostics, and a member of the Medical Devices & Diagnostics Group Operating Committee in May 2003. Mr. Caruso assumed responsibility for the Group Finance organization in December 2005, the position he held until being named to his present position.

Mr. Caruso graduated from Drexel University with a B.S. degree in business administration. He currently serves on the Board of Trustees of The Children's Hospital of Philadelphia.

Mr. Caruso resides in New Hope, Pennsylvania. He and his wife, Deborah, are the parents of three children and grandparents of six.