

Panelist

Glenn Sblendorio
President and CFO
The Medicines Company

Glenn has been CFO and Executive Vice President since March 2006, and became President in 2012. In this role, he is responsible for translating global business priorities into the operational tactics that direct the business to achieve its financial and strategic goals. Glenn participates with the CEO and other top executive positions in formulating current and long-range strategies, objectives and global policies and translating these plans into tactics for the business.

Prior to joining the Company, Glenn was Executive Vice President and CFO of Eyetech Pharmaceuticals until it was acquired by OSI Pharmaceuticals in November 2005. From July 2000 to February 2002, Glenn served as Senior Vice President of Business Development for the Company. From 1998 to July 2000, Glenn was the Chief Executive Officer and Managing Director of MPM Capital Advisors, LLC, an investment bank specializing in healthcare related transactions. Glenn's pharmaceutical experience also includes 12 years at Hoffmann-LaRoche in a variety of senior financial positions, including Chief Financial Officer of Roche Molecular Systems and Head of Finance-Controller for Amgen/Roche Europe. Glenn is on the Board of The Medicines Company, Amicus Therapeutics and Ohphotech.

Glenn received his B.B.A. in accounting from Pace University and his M.B.A. in Finance from Fairleigh Dickinson University.