

Moderator

John Fraher
President
Aptalis Pharma

John is currently President, Aptalis Pharma and assists with setting strategic direction for the company, with specific responsibility for leading the Pharmaceutical Technologies and Global Supply Chain business unit. Previously, he served as CEO of Eurand since January 2011, CCO since August 2006, and held various executive management positions of increasing responsibility at Eurand since 1995.

Prior to joining Eurand, John held management positions at subsidiaries of American Home Products Corporation and Sterling Drug in Ireland. John holds a B.S. degree in Biochemistry from University College Dublin, Ireland.