

Moderator

Hector G. Calzada, Jr.
Managing Director
Deloitte Corporate Finance LLC

Hector G. Calzada, Jr. is a Managing Director in Deloitte Corporate Finance LLC's corporate finance and valuation practice. He is also a member of the firm's Health Sciences industry group.

Mr. Calzada has extensive experience advising clients in transaction, capital markets and valuation-related matters. He has been engaged by clients to advise on transactions, strategic alternatives, capital structure, and intellectual property strategies. Mr. Calzada has conducted and supervised engagements for mergers, acquisitions, corporate divestitures, restructurings, refinancings, joint ventures, licensing transactions, equity syndications, and tax planning. He has also advised Boards of Directors and Special Committees in matters involving fairness and solvency opinions, as well as strategic alternatives.

Mr. Calzada is a recognized speaker, leader and trainer advising clients in transactional matters. His leadership positions in Deloitte include co-lead: Deloitte Financial Advisory Services Program, co-lead: Deloitte M&A Services Strategy IMO Council, co-lead: Board Financial Advisory Services and Fairness Opinion Practice, co-lead: Southeast M&A Services Leadership Council and Deloitte Eminence Fellow – Healthcare.

Prior to joining Deloitte FAS in 2008, Mr. Calzada was a Senior Vice President with Houlihan Lokey Howard & Zukin, with joint-national responsibility for the Healthcare and Life Sciences Financial Advisory Services Practice, for six years. His primary responsibilities included providing financial advisory and investment banking services, including corporate finance advisory matters, fairness opinions, solvency opinions, and valuations.

Mr. Calzada holds an M.B.A. from Florida International University in Miami, Florida and a B.S. in Management (Finance) from Tulane University in New Orleans.